++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Becoming wet and windy.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with clear spells in the south at first, but wet and windy weather already affecting the north-west spreading south-east, followed by clear spells and blustery showers in the north. Severe gales for a time in the far north.

Wednesday:
Sunny intervals and heavy showers in the north at first, else cloudy and windy with outbreaks of rain, turning heavy at times. Gales for many areas overnight.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Unsettled with showers or longer spells of rain. The showers heavy at times with hail and thunder, and wintry over northern hills. Windy, although gales across the south should ease.
